Unspeakable Pain 2

The Fall of Babylon

Isaiah 18:3

3 All you people of the world, you who live on the earth, when a banner is raised on the mountains, you will see it, and when a trumpet sounds, you will hear it.

Part 2. Exile.

Preface

The incredible story of how God rounded up, isolated, and then completely destroyed the world's largest group of corrupt governmental and business leaders in the history of the earth. In what became God's first of two acts in his final defeat of Satan, the Fall of Babylon was foretold by the prophets of Israel, Jesus Christ, and in the Qur'an and Hadiths by Prophet Muhammad.

As you will see, this story fulfills each and every word of ancient scripture in a manner that will leave you speechless and in awe of the power and might of God.

In the days when the United States had been ruled by George W. Bush and the CIA avoiding any accountability for their brutal torture and murder campaigns, their group of corrupt criminals grew by attrition, just to avoid prosecution from heinous and torturous murder of innocents. After George W. Bush shared his power with Bill Gates in a defensive power move, first China, then Russia, in concert with the surprise of Joe Biden, tightened the noose, then hung by the neck, the entire corrupt criminal racket.

My role in this story, which came as a complete surprise to me, was to serve as the victim sacrificed as the scapegoat for all of the criminal's misfortunes. God fooled them into focusing on me, such they missed God rising up an vast army of good people to surround the crooks until it was way too late.

On February 17, 2021, I posted the below "Q Treaty" on my website "EliasMonastery.com." This serves as a basic preface:

The Q Treaty

By David Andrew Bardes

Due to the rampant misunderstanding of "Q" and the so called "deep state," I want to provide some logical explanation to what has become lunacy.

I have been battling governmental corruption for fifteen (15) years in the federal courts. My lawsuit at the US Supreme Court in April of 2016 brought an end to the "TortureGate Corruption Scandal." TortureGate started after George W. Bush brutally tortured to death innocent victims with the most painful death a human could ever endure - hypothermic torture. Also known as "Cold Cell" Torture and "Induced Hypothermia" according to Jim Comey's signed infamous Bush Torture Memo's making cold cell murder legal. Jesus Christ was tortured to death with hypothermic torture, to give you a base line.

Every federal judge in the United States, following orders by Justice John Roberts directed by George Bush2, instantly dismissed every torture lawsuit, even domestic torture, just to protect George Bush2 and his CIA/FBI/DOJ killers, from ever being prosecuted. The federal courts cited torture as "too hot a topic" for the courts to address at the time.

Two decades of this instant lawsuit dismissal, however, had a grave secondary effect, as it gave the green light to our jails and prisons that torture was on. Inmates were brutally murdered all over the United States, and the judges granted immunity over murder, dismissing all the lawsuits immediately. A dozen inmates alone were murdered with cold cell torture. Children were tortured to death, adults, Mexican's at the border, all to protect George Bush2 from ever facing the law for his brutal cold cell murders.

In 2015, I sued four (4) federal judges for this corruption of instantly dismissing torture lawsuits, and took them all the way to the US Supreme Court. On April 15, 2016, the US Supreme Court voted to no longer dismiss any torture lawsuits, after denying my petition. Hours later a federal judge in Seattle did not dismiss a cold cell torture lawsuit against the two CIA torture doctors who designed and ran the cold cell torture murder program. Obama continued for months trying to dismiss the lawsuit but failed, and the CIA doctors of death were forced to settle the case the day before the trial was to begin.

TortureGate had come to an end, and inmates were no longer frozen to death in our jails and prisons. Just because the governmental prison and jail officials did not want to be sued, or sentenced to death for their heinous murders.

But the reason why the US Supreme Court was able to vote to end TortureGate, is because there were only eight (8) justices on the court at the time. Justice Scalia had died two weeks prior. George Bush2 and Dick Cheney had planned an elaborate hoax hunting trip for Justice Scalia at a private hunting ranch in way west Texas, to offer Scalia lifetime membership in a private International hunting fraternity, as a means to secure his key tie vote against my stop cold cell torture petition that had just come before the court for a vote. But God foiled their diabolical plot by whacking Scalia while he slept the first night at the ranch.

So, when "Q" spoke of the "deep state," he or she was referring to George's group of buddies loyal to him. Just like all of our past presidents have people that they installed during their reigns. But George's group of loyalists grew larger and larger due to the need to buy off more and more people just to avoid anyone wanting to enforce the laws against mass murder and torture. It grew by attrition out of need of protection from the law. Such it is now the largest group of the so called "deep states."

This talk of sex with children and eating children is nonsense, and comes out of children being tortured to death, which is true common knowledge. Obama at his infamous Shenandoah Valley Youth Torture Prison Camp, tied a young boy down so tight to the infamous metal "chair of death" and affixed a bag over his head, suffocating the boy to death. Obama freely joined George's torture corruption protection group, actively covered up the brutal murders of Bush2, and then engaged in their own, surpassing George's kill rate by 400%. Pictures of the Obama's and Bush's hugging and kissing each other, and exchanging candies like giddy school children, were published frequently.

In the now two-decades long effort of George Bush2, Dick Cheney, and the CIA/FBI/DOJ, to avoid any form of accountability for their brutal cold cell torture murders of innocent victims, their cowardice has now even hamstrung the new Biden Administration.

In September of 2018, China busted their own citizen Meng Hongwei, the President of Interpol, with accepting and passing along bribes from George Bush2 to the judges of the International Criminal Court (ICC) to prevent the opening of the investigation into Bush2 war crimes and torture in Afghanistan.

While China sentenced Hongwei to thirteen years in prison for accepting $2.1 million dollars in bribes, George Bush2 employed Bill Gates, Larry Page, and Tim Cook, to negotiate with China to remain hush and not expose George Bush2 to what would be an embarrassing International scandal.

The technology CEO's negotiations worked for a time, as the ICC judges initially voted against opening the Bush2 war crimes investigation (they later reversed,) and China agreed to keep their dark secrets private. After Donald Trump had a phone call with Xi Jinping, then a dinner at the G20 summit, Trump used threats of more tariffs to tamp down any chance of such a cataclysmic revelation of corruption. Our nation's sovereignty had been sold to cover up the heinous crimes of our leaders?

But apparently China was just biding time, waiting for the dangerous Trump "kook" to leave office. Sure enough, once Trump was dumped by the voters, China sprang into action to thwart full control over the incoming Biden Administration. Obama and Biden spent their previous eight years in office covering up the brutal murders of Bush2/CIA/FBI/DOJ cold cell torture, so China was confident Biden would still be such a corrupt criminal?

Once in office, Biden purposely avoided speaking with Xi Jinping, and instead had his secretary speak with China. Blinken was apparently read the riot act, demanding Biden stay out of Chinese affairs, and stop all the talk about human rights abuses, not when the USA engages in such murderous crimes, with no accountability whatsoever.

Then Biden did finally speak with Xi Jinping, but the recorded phone call was never released by either side. With both sides claiming a "get tough" victory over the other.

Such is the ongoing nature of corruption winning over any form of law or justice. Now the United States is fully beholden to China? Whatever China wants, China will get, else they will bring down the whole house of cards? The United States is no longer a sovereign nation, as our criminal leaders, helped by our technology CEO's betrayal, sold our nation out just to protect the brutal cold cell killers from ever facing any form of justice?

While the proof of all the above is found in well annotated daily website log files, this mess of corruption will soon be revealed in the public record under its own weight. Justice may be slow in coming, but comes it does. Sometimes like a river of justice?

Donald Trump knew all about George being the leader of the largest so called "deep state," and chose to protect George from the ICC investigation, and instead Donald set up his own group of loyalists as his own "deep state." Trump failed to do anything beneficial. Now we are back to Joe Biden doing whatever Obama and Bush2 tell him to do. Not even our CIA can do CIA things because they owe their very jobs and liberty to China? Our nations sovereignty, even the control of our technology companies, have been sold to China for the price of silence?

Whoever "Q" is, they are a coward. Hiding even your identity is a position of weakness, as nothing productive can be accomplished. Obviously. We are simply dealing with criminal scumbags on the run from the law. This is my treaty on the so called "Q" coward.
At the time I wrote the above "Q Treaty," I was unaware that Joe Biden was actively working behind the scenes to destroy Babylon. Possibly along with Barrack Obama. Same with several of the technology CEO's who had objected to the forced corruption, and acted as double agents if you will. In fact, the number of good people in hiding was far larger than I could have ever imagined. It was not until recently did I learn about how many.

I am not the so called "Q" obviously. This Q, even if there is such a person, is apparently some sort of federal officer reporting on the corruption via a hacking website. To the extent my long efforts in the federal courts and as a sacrificial victim trying to defeat the Goerge, Dick, Bill, and CIA crime waves may parallel such a cause, does leave me as an out-of-the-closet real "Q" of sorts. But given God's rise of his army of good people to surround and sink the criminals, may mean there are hundreds of thousands of "Q's" actively at work.

My First Book "Unspeakable Pain"

Although this book is a sequel to my first book, it is not necessary to read my first book beforehand. I briefly repeat the important parts. But when I wrote my first book in 2017, I was unaware of my duty and job for God in the outcome of the final days of earth. I thought my job was to end our nation's use of hypothermic cold cell torture and murder. Little did I know, that was just my introduction on whom God wanted to destroy: George, Dick, Bill, and the CIA torture criminals. The number of CIA officers who actually volunteered to brutally murder innocent victims with cold cell torture was very small, a finite number. The rest of the CIA warned the criminals that their efforts would end badly, and could discredit the agency as a whole. I support the CIA, just not the torture ones.

It is important to note that I have never heard the voice of God, have never seen an angel, and have had no revelations. I have relied solely on scripture alone. For reasons which are obvious, as it gives me credibility. Since everything is grounded by the words of God's prophets thousands of years ago, you can trust in God and not me. This is how God's genius works.

I only learned about my role and job for God from scripture alone, as it was happening, or afterwards. Otherwise, I would have no clue. With this as a preface, let us start from the beginning.

Biography of David Andrew Bardes

My early grade school years were spent at a majority Jewish and Protestant Christian day school called Seven Hills School. I spent fourth and fifth grade the Norwood Baptist Christian Day School. Where I received what I call my "staunch key-holed nosed fundamentalist" Christian education. English class consisted of memorizing entire Bible chapters, then reciting them before the class. Such if we missed a single word, we had to start all over again, until we got it right. This is where I first learned about Elijah. My favorite prophet. I wished to be Elijah when he returned in the end times. The kinship was palpable at a young age.

I spent my sixth grade year at the Catholic Summit Country Day School in the Hyde Park neighborhood of Cincinnati. Halfway through the year, at age twelve, I was asked to recite the scripture during morning mass. I was able to practice the afternoon before. I stood before the powerful microphone, echoing loudly throughout the huge marble and stone sanctuary. I thought to myself, I am going to enjoy this. The next morning, before hundreds of people, I took to the microphone, having memorized the short passage, and let the words of God boom throughout the grand sanctuary.

I must have done a good job, as it caught the attention of the nuns and priests. Whom looked me up, only to discover I had never once gone to my twice weekly required confession. I was charged with such offenses, and dragged before the inquisition court to account for my grave sins.

Reciting my strict Baptist theology taught so well at Norwood Baptist, I simply shared where Jesus had suffered on the cross to buy me back from Satan despite my sins, so why would I ever need to confess my sins to another sinner today? I was found not guilty, and was the first student ever to be excused from having to go to confession. But I was asked not to come back the following year. My parents broke the news to me by asking if I wanted to go to a new school the following year. I said yes.

I transferred back to my original majority Jewish and Protestant Christian grade school that I had attended since kindergarten. When my friends came to school the day after their Bar Mitzvahs with a thick wad of cash, and big diamond studded rings, I asked my father if I could convert to Judaism, as we had nothing like that in Christianity. My father said no. The school's winter holidays were spent spinning the Dreidel at the base of the Christmas tree while singing Noel in German.

At age twelve, I became a member of my first church, the Covenant First Presbyterian Church in downtown Cincinnati. But at school, everyone thought I was Jewish, because I looked Jewish, and was told I acted and talked Jewish. Which I took as a compliment, always wanting to be Jewish.

My first girlfriend crush was a Jewish girl named Abby Cohen, and she thought I was Jewish too. On my second playdate at her parents home, we sat down for Sabbath lunch. During the meal, her father turned the topic of the conversation to me, and asked me what Synagogue my parents attended. Knowing my goose was cooked, worse than the turkey before me, I defaulted to self deprecating humor. By answering "Covenant First Presbyterian Synagogue of the Holy Torah, sir." He was not amused, and asked me to call my parents to have them come pick me up. Crushed at the time, today is a most precious memory.

I developed a love for the great outdoors at a young age. Our school had an active camping, rock climbing, and kayaking group called the Seven Hills Outdoor Program. I spent several summers at a rugged canoeing camp in northern Minnesota along the Canadian border called "Camp Voyageur." We would take two canoes out on seven to ten day trips out of a base camp, and paddled deep into the Boundary Waters Canoe Area. Having to portage between lakes was the hardest part. Carrying two heavy Duluth packs, one on my back, the other on my chest, with the thin leather straps of the packs digging into my shoulders as the mosquito’s ate us alive. Unable to see the rocks along the portage path taught us to lift our feet up high and persevere. After a long painful portage we would drop our packs and fall into the crystal clear cold lake water thankful it was over. Not knowing at the time why such would be considered enjoyable, it was God teaching me endurance at a young age, that would eventually become crucial in surviving what God had in store for me later on in my life.

At age fifteen, I was fortunate to spend an entire summer in Alaska with our school's outdoor program. We first drove to Canada spending two weeks at a technical rock and ice climbing school.
Climbing moving glaciers with dangerous crevasses and rock climbing in adverse ice conditions culminated in climbing Mount Athabasca. Taking a large number of small steps can conquer any mountain, is the lesson I learned.

From Canada we drove up to Alaska on the famous gravel Alcan Highway. We spent the summer backpacking, mountain and rock climbing, and kayaking. One day we backpacked twenty-six (26) miles through the thick pine forest of the Kenai Peninsula, setting our record. Avoided grizzly bears in the Mount McKinley (today called Mount Denali) National Park, as the sun never set, formed memories never forgotten. My kayaking skills advanced to a level where I could roll my kayak with only my hands, without need of the paddle. Which proved necessary at times on the turbulent white waters of Alaska's wild rivers.

I spent my high school years at a prestigious eastern prep school called Lawrenceville, in Lawrenceville, New Jersey. My father had graduated from Lawrenceville, and then so did I in 1981.
My first two years of college were spent majoring in Geology at the University of Denver, in Denver, Colorado. My love for the outdoors and respect for our earth, caused me to become an environmentalist long before the term became trendy. As a freshman, I was elected as the president of the largest fraternity on campus.

Colorado can be described as a year round outdoor playground. I was introduced to the fine art of snow cave camping. Hypothermia was a constant threat, and we were given extensive training in the warning signs and various stages of a hypothermic death.

Kayaking the raging rivers of Colorado was an adventure. During one spring snow melt the most dangerous rapids on the Arkansas river had been shut down after several rafters died the day before we arrived, which we were unaware. High water usually drowns out rapids, but not at "Twin Rocks" falls. The entire confluence of the river was forced between two large rock outcroppings, creating a very turbulent tempest of a falls. Our group consisted of several rafts and kayaks. From shore we carefully analyzed the best route trying to figure out a safe passage through the falls.

To this day I am not certain why we decided to take the risk, as there was no clear path of safety that we were able to ascertain. But take the rapids we did, and we all survived. I took a path to the right of the highest water, paddling feverously. Once downstream and thankful to be alive, did we look back realizing that although the invincibility of youth may have motivated us, it was the hand of God that saved us. Between skiing and all campus parties, I considered those two years as the best years of my young life.

I transferred to Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois, and switched majors to Economics.
Since my past geology courses did not apply to my economics degree, I attended summer school, and completed my economics degree in two and a half years. Competing with the smartest students from all around the world, I really had to work hard at Northwestern. I would have graduated with a 3.0 grade point average, had I not taken my last elective course "Introduction to Christianity." What I thought would be an easy "A" course, the professor gave me a "D." I would argue in class with the professor, who was teaching things not found in the Bible. It got so bad, that before I would even speak, he would just yell at me "Get out! Get out now!" So, I ended up graduating from Northwestern in 1986, with a 2.99 grade point average.

I made the career choice to follow my father's footsteps by entering the life insurance business. In 1986, I moved to Charlotte, North Carolina, studying to become a life insurance agent with Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company. After five years of sales experience, my father asked me to join him in business in Vero Beach, Florida. My father worked with Fortune 100 companies, and the C-level suite executives of the same. This is where I learned the executive benefits business.

In 1990, I married my high school sweetheart, Betsy Chace Foos. Married on a Friday, by Pastor Joe B. Brown of the Hickory Grove Baptist Church, in Charlotte, the next Sunday we moved to Vero Beach, Florida. Betsy and I then began looking for church to attend in Vero Beach. The first Sunday we attended the First Church of God (based out of Anderson, Indiana.) On the stage was a full band playing contemporary Christian music. The pastor gave an upbeat message. We both fell in love with the church. I had grown up with the stoic organ music with traditional hymns in a highly regimented service, so being exposed to the excitement of a more relaxed style of worship was a refreshing and welcome change.

The evening after our first service, we were visited by a church leader, who asked Betsy and I to start a sixth and seventh grade youth group. The high school youth group had a dynamic youth pastor, but there was no middle school youth group. Betsy and I said yes. Our first Wednesday youth meeting had seven students, whom we really enjoyed. The high school youth pastor took us under his wing, and trained and supported both of us. Within weeks we had about seventy students attending.

After the high school youth pastor was busted having an affair with the wife of a staff member, he was asked to leave the church. Betsy and I then took over the high school youth group, and the senior pastor took over our training and oversight. After the senior pastor was busted having two affairs at the same time, Betsy and I had grown the combined youth groups to about three hundred students attending two days a week. Betsy and I were voted in as youth pastors, but because I was working full time, Betsy assumed the position as official youth pastor. Betsy handled the entertainment and bands, while I gave the mini sermons.

Despite having no senior pastor, the church still grew in membership, due to the vibrant youth group. When teenagers willingly enjoyed attending a church, the parents tended to bring their entire families. After four years, Betsy and I were able to convince an ordained youth pastor to take over our group. But due to the size of the youth group, many pastoral candidates were fearful of the position. Once one brave soul agreed to do so, Betsy and I retired from our youth group positions.

Betsy and I had two children. First born was David Austin in 1994, and second born was Allison Pape in 1995. Both were born in Vero Beach, Florida.

Working In The World Trade Center

I left the employment with my father in 1997, and joined Aon Consulting, Inc. in New York City, as a vice president in charge of building their "Voluntary Benefits" practice. Betsy and I moved outside of Philadelphia, where Betsy's family was located, while I commuted five hours a day to the 101st floor of 2 World Trade.

Betsy and I bought and renovated a 1853 stone farmhouse in the Jewish neighborhood of Maple Glen, Pennsylvania, down the street from a famous Synagogue. Betsy and I did not attend a church at the time, as we both were a bit "burned out" from the politics of church from our days as lay youth pastors.

When people first meet me, they are immediately convinced I am Jewish. Which I find flattering as a compliment. When I tell them I was not Jewish, they do not believe me. One day in the World Trade Center, a Christian co-worker came up to me and said "I have known you for two years and did not know you were a Christian, I always though you were Jewish, you never said anything," I replied "Sorry to disappoint you." Which ended the conversation.

My first office in the World Trade Center had a great view of the South Bay, and on a clear day I could see way past the Verrazzano-Narrows Bridge and out into the Atlantic Ocean. One day looking out the window, I prayed to God saying "Thank you God for all of your many blessings, my high paying job, becoming a millionaire, my wonderful wife, and two beautiful children. If I can give up anything to further your kingdom, I do so gratefully." Little did I know at the time, that God was going to take away everything from me, and cause suffering of unspeakable pain for decades, all to further his kingdom. Sometimes I pondered why I prayed such a prayer.

As a consultant at Aon Consulting, I had developed a practice that avoided traditional insurance corruption. When a Fortune 100 company would hire me to shop their employee benefits from hundreds of insurance companies, the insurance companies would offer bribes to award them not only some the business, but rather all of it. To avoid this, I instituted a practice of writing a strict "Request for Proposal" (RFP) along with contracts signed by the insurance companies stating that they did not offer me any bribes. After the proposals were returned, I would carefully choose the top five finalists, and then invite each to come before my client giving their sales pitches in person. My clients would then choose whom to place their business, not me. This practice spread, as the clients trusted the process, and the results produced the best quotes, along with assurance of fair bidding.

Although this fair bidding process produced seven figure revenues for Aon Consulting, the home office in Chicago caught attention, and wanted us to steer more business towards the insurance companies that Aon owned themselves. A planning meeting was called at headquarters in Chicago, for our entire national division. The bad suggestion was put forth in the meeting, that one of Aon's wholly owned insurance companies should always be included with the top five finalists, on each case, regardless of the quotes. I was the only person to vote no, all the others raised their hands voting yes. I was ordered to commit this crime of bid rigging on each case, or I would be fired. When I flew home, I typed up my resignation letter giving them four weeks notice. They asked for six, and I said no.

I left employment in the World Trade Center in June of 2000, missing the terrorist attacks of 9/11/2001 by fifteen (15) months. But I lost 176 co-workers and colleagues, three of them close friends and mentors.

The Affair

Betsy had an affair with our nanny's husband, and left me for him. Our nanny, her husband, and their two children were living in the carriage house on our property. While I was working in New York City, Betsy and the nanny's husband were carrying on the affair. Betsy and the nanny's husband moved to Charleston, South Carolina, to start their new lives together.

After resigning my position with Aon Consulting, and after enough expensive weekend visits to Charleston to visit my children, I decided to move to Charleston so my children would have their father in their lives. I started my own executive and employee benefits practice, called Bardes Consulting, Inc.

Moving To Charleston, South Carolina

I had previously purchased a large forty-foot long luxury motor home for visits to Charleston, so after I sold my home in Maple Glen, I packed the RV and moved to Charleston. I rented a spot in a RV park south of Charleston and started my benefits practice. My business grew rapidly, and when too many boxes of new work filled my RV, I decided to buy a house. Within a year, I had two employees, a consistent six figure income, and was working six days a week out of my house on a small tidal lake on an island south of downtown Charleston.

Vow of Celibacy

In 2002, I took a vow of celibacy. In what may have started out being jaded from a bad divorce, my celibacy later played an important role in God's plan for my life.

I also found the scripture in Matthew 19, where Jesus gave a direct order that Christians are not to marry and must remain celibate if they cared about going to heaven. Jesus blamed Moses for destroying God's original form of marriage by allowing divorce for any reason. Which made human style marriage a serious problem being a temporary voluntary relationship amounting to paid prostitution.

And Apostle Paul told men not to have sex with women (1 Corinthians 7:1) and to remain unmarried as we he (1 Corinthians 7:8.) In fact, Paul made the argument married Christians were useless to Jesus (1 Corinthians 7:32-35.) Having sworn an oath to God to serve their spouse one hundred percent of their time, leaving them zero percent of their time to serve the God they just swore an oath never to serve again. Paul later relented a bit, saying marriage was not a sin, but then reversed saying the person that did not marry did better (1 Corinthians 7:38,) thus making marriage a small sin. I had atoned for my sin of marriage, and took a vow never to do so again. Instead, I dedicated one hundred percent of my time serving only the Lord.

Being celibate made me an "A" (Asexual) member of the LGBTQIA+ group. I raised both of my children telling them if they grew up to discover they were gay, that I would love them more than ever before.

Falsely Accused Of Not Paying My Child Support

Betsy eventually threw the nanny's husband out of her house, then married her yard man. My child support had been set at my high salary from my days in the World Trade Center, which I maintained despite the period before I could gain the same levels of income. But Betsy wanted more money, and in 2004 filled out and signed a five-page affidavit claiming I had not paid my child support, and owed her $13,000 in past child support arrears.

I met with the prosecutor, and proved that I had actually overpaid my child support, not owing Betsy any money. He agreed, and so did the judge who signed a court order striking the falsely reported arrears. The problem was the lazy prosecutor waited a year to get the judge to sign the order, so during that time my name and Social Security number had been entered into county, state, and federal databases as being a mega-deadbeat dad.

The effects were devastating and immediate. Once my personal and business credit was destroyed, over the course of eighteen months, my business was liquidated, and I faced financial ruin. I was left broke, homeless, and $300,000 in debt. I was also deeply depressed, as you can imagine.

I threatened to sue the prosecutor and state for my financial losses. John Magera, a state attorney for the South Carolina Department of Social Services (DSS), then decided to prosecute me for real child support arrears, as an offensive move in defense of my valid claims. Knowing all along I was broke and could not get a job that asked for my Social Security number. My child support and other required payments were about $40,000 a year, so the arrears grew quickly.

I was put on trial twice, and found not guilty twice. In fact, the judge in the second trial ordered John Magera to sit down with me and work out a financial settlement for my great losses. After the trial, John Magara yelled at my family pastor, who attended the trial in support, "Go tell Mr. Bardes he is fuc*ked!" This death threat was carried out immediately. John Magera and the state had no intention of paying me any monies, and scheduled a snap hearing with a crooked hanging judge, with the goal of throwing me in jail, then killing me.

The corrupt South Carolina governmental leaders were terrified of my financial claims against them. I had a good case, and had won. I had been placed under investigation by the state police (SLED.) My picture had been posted at all the state DSS offices. Yet SLED had nothing to use against me, other than the child support arrears. Which culminated in their own court hearing being a disaster for them, when the state judge ordered the DSS to financially settle my valid claims.

On April 3, 2006, I came before criminal Judge Paul W. Garfinkel, who would not even let me be heard, and just sentenced me to six months in jail until I paid my child support arrears. After being sentenced, I stared straight into his evil eyes, and yelled "Your honor, you are fired! The Public Trust of the United States of America has now fired you, you are a disgrace and will remove yourself from the bench!"

Judge Garfinkel was shocked, and his demon face shriveled up in horror. He was relieved when the sheriff deputies grabbed my body, and lifted me up into the air, carrying me to the anti-room, to be wrapped in body chains, and hauled off to jail in a paddy wagon. I was turned into an inmate, the scum of the earth, hated by all. Twelve hours later I would be declared dead by the jail's doctor, then shot with a gun to feign a reason for my murder.

The jailers did not bother taking my mugshot or fingerprints, rather I was immediately locked inside the punishment holding cell, called an "intensive management cell." Engineered to be made very cold, located underneath the air conditioner air handling unit, with blasting forty-degree air, I found myself being purposely tortured in the frigid cold air. I asked for my jacket three times and was denied. Without means of keeping myself alive with heat, I understood that I would become hypothermic and die in their carefully engineered torture chamber. Shivering turned into violent shivering, then body jerking. I was losing about two degrees of body heat per hour. After six hours of unspeakable pain, I could no longer shiver. I had entered the stage of hypothermic shock, and was close to death.
At midnight I told the guard I was about to die from hypothermia. He laughed at me. After nine hours of extreme pain, and suffering the last horrific stages of a slow hypothermic death, I fell onto the concrete floor of the torture chamber, in a medical condition doctor's called "hypothermic coma" or "suspended animation."

Even though hypothermic coma is not death, only close, the jail's doctor, Dr. Ralph B. Piening, MD, declared me dead. A person is not legally dead until a doctor declares them dead. As was I so declared. I had been legally murdered in their cold cell.

Sheriff Al Cannon, Jr. was notified of my death, as I would have been the fourth dead inmate within two weeks. Sheriff Cannon did not want the medical examiner to declare me dead by hypothermia, as such would have given away their secret and specially engineered hypothermic torture cold cell. Sheriff Cannon came up with the bad idea of shooting me with a gun, to feign a reason for my death being other than hypothermia.

Sheriff Cannon put an untraceable gun to the lower right quadrant of my stomach, pointed it toward my spine, and pulled the trigger. Dr. Piening then sewed the bullet wound closed with three overhand cadaver sutures, ready for the morgue.

I was then left on the concrete floor of the cold cell for two more days, to allow enough time for my body to otherwise cool down to avoid a determination of death by hypothermia, rather to make a determination of death by gunshot. We do not know the exact story concocted by Sheriff Cannon and Dr. Piening, as a reason for my death, but perhaps they were to claim I was shot before coming to jail.

During those three days I was tortured and legally declared dead, but was not, and then shot, I had what is called a near death experience. I provide full details of my near death experience in my book "Unspeakable Pain," so I will only provide a brief recount of my visit to the throne of God.

My Near Death Experience

When the stinging pain and icy cold of unspeakable pain and torment stopped, which happened instantly, I opened my eyes, and thought ahhh, I feel great, not cold, but nice and warm.

I felt more alive than ever felt before, like I had finally arrived, at what being alive was all about. Before me was a bright white haze, like fog in the morning. I thought to myself, am I dead…is this what being dead is like? And where am I, where am I going?

I waved my arms before me, but saw nothing. I felt them though, and they felt tingly, and electric. I could feel my whole body, with arms and legs, but had no genitals. I was no longer an animal. I was transparent. I could see, I could feel, I could hear, I could smell, and I could remember everything in my entire life on earth. In fact, every event in my life was within memory. I felt more alive than I had ever been before. I had been "born again" into something greater than anything on earth. The white fog faded to inky darkness.

In this darkness, off to my right, in the direction I was being moved, I could hear someone singing. The sounds grew louder, until I could discern a large choir singing, sounding like musical instruments never heard on earth. The sounds were so powerful and thundering, like a choir of millions of these instruments singing. The inky darkness was not frightening, and smelled like a great pine forest, but I saw nothing. There were no stars, no moon, just inky darkness, as if in a large void.

Then off to my right, came into view, the back corner of a tall dark gray wall. Which appeared to be made of some sort of metal alloy, but looked more alien than anything. The wall seemed two hundred feet tall, and it was the back corner of a walled compound, or large city complex.

Over the top of the wall, many clouds of bright white light were gathering, and was the only source of illumination. My movement stopped close to base of the wall, under the back corner. The bright white light clouds began to form and move over the top of the wall, moving towards my direction. Then the light clouds veered down in my direction, and large waves of white light came at me at high speed. The clouds of bright white light accelerated towards me. As the light clouds came closer, the sounds grew louder, and the ground began to shake. It sounded like a freight train coming straight for me.

As the light clouds got closer, I braced for impact. I reached out for something to grab onto, but caught nothing but air. Then wham, the light hit me, and blasted right into me. It was a huge rush of euphoria, loud music, and brilliant white light. As the light raced into me, it delivered an increasing rush of euphoria. This euphoria inducing light was one hundred times more powerful than drugs.
found on earth, and the euphoria did not stop. The euphoria increased in sheer pleasure. I was so high, I became weak in the knees, and lost balance, and fell backwards, being pushed by the light. I fell into a transparent chair. Someone placed a transparent chair behind me, knowing I would not withstand that level of euphoria for long. My arms, legs, and body were outspread, pinned down, and gyrating in ecstasy, as the white light music euphoria blasted into me.

I was pinned down in that chair listening to millions of musical instruments, or angels, singing songs. Some songs I had never heard before, in languages I have never heard. It was sheer unadulterated paradise.

On the other side of the wall, I heard a huge gathering of what sounded like millions of people. I heard the roar of crowds of people, but I could not communicate with them. I was unable to move from my tonic condition, and position, in that chair. If you think of a huge amphitheater, tens of miles across, at a party which does not end, all getting blasted with white light music euphoria, that would be a good description of what is going on in heaven, around and before the throne of God.

After about five minutes of this paradise, it ended abruptly. Someone yanked me out of the chair, and it was over instantly. Then the intense cold pain set back in. Twenty-five earth hours had elapsed, and I slowly regained consciousness back on earth, only to find out I was paralyzed below the waist, and very cold. Someone had shot me with a metal object, two doctors were later convinced was a bullet based on their x-ray.

I did not hear the voice of God, did not meet Jesus, nor a spiritual guide, saw no angel, spoke with no spirits, did not have a review of my life, and no reunion with dead relatives. I had none of common near death experience events. From what I could gather, no one had ever had a near death experience like mine.

Reanimation Back On Earth

I slowly regained consciousness back on earth as two deputies were performing CPR on me. They kept asking me "Who are you, what is your name?" I answered "I do not know." They went away and came back saying "Your name is David Bardes." It did not register with me. They carried me between their shoulders into a cell block deep inside the jail, and laid me down on a mat on the floor, then left. I was eventually taken by wheelchair to the jail's hospital on the fourth floor, but Dr. Piening, to his horror finding me alive, refused to take me to a real hospital. Lest they discovered the bullet. Which I was unaware.

Instead, I was laid on the floor of the suicide watch cell, to keep me behind locked doors. I was left on the floor to die. I did not know I had been shot with a gun, and my body was warming up from being hypothermic. Dr. Piening was certain I would finally die, as a dead inmate tells no tales.

However, after ten (10) days in the jail's hospital, I was still alive, and was transferred to the medical observation cell block. I remained in jail for seventy-two (72) days, but was eventually released. I had regained use of my left leg, but my right leg remained partially paralyzed, and I walked with a limp. No one told me that I had been shot with a gun, and I would not discover that truth for six more years. The bullet hole wound that was sutured closed, healed and left a scar, but I did not know where and when the scar occurred.

PTSD (Post Traumatic Stress Disorder)

After leaving jail and obtaining employment, I was suffering from some sort of mental illness. In 2008, I sought the care of a psychiatrist and psychologist, and was diagnosed with "late onset" PTSD (Post Traumatic Stress Disorder.) In 2010, after not improving, I checked myself into the hospital. A team of ten doctors worked on me for ten days, and I was given my official diagnoses of PTSD, depression, and anxiety. I was prescribed the proper medication, which ultimately saved my life. Doctors today can cure PTSD if you are fortunate enough to find one who knows how. I battled PTSD for eight years until cured. By 2016, my psychologist told me I know longer needed to see him. But it was a rough eight years.

My First Federal Lawsuit

After leaving jail, I sought attorneys to sue the jail for hypothermic torture. The lawyers refused to take my case, explaining every federal judge in the country instantly dismissed every torture lawsuit to protect George W. Bush, Dick Cheney, and the CIA. Whom ironically used hypothermic cold cell torture to torture innocent Muslims to death after the attacks on 9/11.
The federal courts cited torture as "too hot of a topic" to address at the time. Undeterred, I taught myself the law, and filed my own federal civil rights lawsuit. The lawsuit was instantly dismissed without ever being read. I filed objections and won, but all my claims were dismissed except for the hypothermic torture claims against the Sheriff and his jail. My case rolled into discovery where I was given subpoena powers of the court, was able to obtain evidence, issue interrogatories, and take depositions. All my defendants lied over and over again, and after two years the federal judges eventually dismissed my lawsuit. The federal judge wrote a complicated fifty-page opinion on why cold cell hypothermic torture and murder was not a violation of the US Constitution. The judge was likely paid a bribe for his crimes. My lawsuit's only accomplishment was getting the crooked prosecutor, John Magara, fired from his job, and obtaining photographic evidence of the highly engineered hypothermic cold cells.

I appealed my case to the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals in Richmond, Virginia, who after they were likely paid bribes, found nothing wrong with the lower court case decision. I then petitioned the US Supreme Court, whom denied my petition. My one Constitutional question asked in my petition was "Is brutal near death hypothermic cold cell torture a violation of the Constitution?" The year was 2011. Five years later, in 2016, upon my second petition, the same court ended their scandal of instantly dismissing torture lawsuits. Until then, the TortureGate Scandal was the law of the land.

Shared Parenting

In 2008, Betsy apologized for all the horrible things she had done to me. I accepted her apology, we made peace, and we both begin doing what is called "Shared Parenting." Betsy did the morning kid driving, and I did the afternoon and evening kid driving. I did not drink alcohol, while Betsy did, so the evening driving kept the kids safe. We ate family dinners together, and even took vacations together. Custody was never an issue, as the kids floated between homes on their schedule, not ours. Parents belong to the kids, the kids do not belong to the parents.
In 2011, Betsy and I were asked to be on the "Dr. Phil" show. Dr. Phil had previously quoted bogus domestic violence statistics on his show, fed to him by the "hard core man haters." Dr. Phil was blasted for berating only men, and dedicated a week of shows to male victims of domestic violence.

Betsy was going to go on national television and admit she made false claims of domestic violence against me, when in fact, she was the one that hit me. We were interviewed by the producers separately and cleared to go on the show. But the producers canceled our appearance at the last minute, claiming there was not enough conflict. I guess conflict sells commercials on the Dr. Phil show.

After my near death experience, I became a radical feminist. The spirit inside of a woman is exactly the same as the spirit inside of a man. God made both absolutely equal, and in heaven both are absolutely equal for all eternity. On earth, it is Satan who wants us to believe otherwise. I no longer fell for Satan's clever deception.

Pro Se Guide To Family Court

In 2011, I wrote and published a book titled "Pro Se Guide To Family Court." I had been doing advocacy work with distraught parents under oppression from the family courts. Trying to stem the tide of suicides and homicides surrounding custody and divorce battles, and the hastening of such deaths caused by corrupt family court judges and crooked family court lawyers, I told my story of torture and near murder at the hands of such criminals.

Judges will tell you the term "Pro Se" means you are "representing yourself," but it is actually a Latin slur meaning "you do not stand a chance." It comes from Ovid. My book explained the morass of the killing machine of family court, and recommended assuming a legal strategy called "constant litigation" as means of winning in family court. Comical but true, the book was effective in helping relieve the grief of so many parents.

One doctor from Florida wrote me an email saying the book saved his life, and restored his sense of humor. After several such notes, I removed the book for sale as a paperback, and released the book for free on the Internet. The book developed a wide following, and I recently found one of the original paperbacks for sale on eBay for seventy-five dollars. It has developed quite a cult following.

December 9, 2011 - Discovery Of Bullet In My Hip

After five years of my right leg suffering nerve damage from the bullet, walking with a limp, my left leg had been carrying too much of the load, and I suffered a small fracture in the femoral head of my left hip. Not having health insurance, I had to continue walking to survive, which made the fracture worse and worse. My femoral head was disintegrating into tiny bits of bones.

On December 9, 2011, while driving through a college campus, I was rear ended by a college student. It was a slow speed accident, and I suffered no injury save my already broken hip, as it broke apart even further. The pain was horrific, and I was taken to the hospital in an ambulance.

Betsy and my daughter Allison came to the hospital. The three of us stood before the illuminated wall of x-rays, where the two doctors pointed out my broken hip, telling me I needed full hip joint replacement surgery. Then one of the doctors asked me when was I shot with a gun. I looked at Betsy and Allie, and said never, not that I was aware. The doctor pointed to a metal object in my hip and said "You have a bullet in your right hip." This was the first indication I had been shot with a gun while being tortured inside the jail. It also explained the scar on my stomach, with the three cadaver sutures, the nerve damage down my right leg, and subsequently my broken left hip.

Second Federal Lawsuit

My second federal lawsuit was also dismissed, but did achieve in getting the crooked Judge Paul Garfinkel fired from his job. South Carolina finally yanked him from the bench after determining he was whacked in the head in addition to being corrupt. Bringing my strong words to fruition telling him "you are fired."

But the two decades long nationwide practice of every federal judge dismissing every torture lawsuit, had a grave secondary effect, as it gave the green light to jails and prisons that torture was on. And inmates were brutally and ruthlessly tortured to death. Many with cold cell hypothermic torture. Others died from dehydration from water faucets being turned off. Two of the more subtle murder techniques consisted of "head banging" and "artery pinching." Guards would hold an inmate down and repeatedly smash their head against the concrete floor. Or, guards would hold down an inmate and pinch off the two arteries supplying blood to their brain, killing the inmate.

In March of 2013, after obtaining ObamaCare, I had full hip joint replacement surgery. After four years of being bed ridden and painfully hobbling around with a broken hip, I was finally able to walk again.

Third Federal Lawsuit

I waited a few years before filing my third federal lawsuit. I spent the time collecting the evidence of a dozen inmates around the country that had been tortured to death with hypothermic cold cell torture. The engineered "intensive management" cold cell I was locked inside, were used in jails and prisons all over our nation. We purposely tortured to death our own citizens.

Then on December 9, 2014, the United States Senate published their "Report on CIA Torture," which graphically detailed the horrific murders of two innocent Muslims with hypothermic cold cell torture. The CIA even used "ice baths," dunking victims in tubs of ice water. The same way Adolf Hitler killed Jews and captured Allied service members in their infamous hypothermia temperature at death murders. George W. Bush called this "enhanced" murder technique "Cold Cell" torture and "Induced Hypothermia," in his now infamous torture memos. The government's long denial of the existence of hypothermic cold cell torture and murder had come to an end. The secret was exposed as a well hidden lie.

Armed with this evidence, I filed my third federal lawsuit. But I sued the four corrupt federal judges from my first two federal lawsuits, for their corruption in the "TortureGate Scandal." By this time I had become to George W. Bush, Dick Cheney, the CIA goons, and FBI killers, a serious pain in the buttocks, and a major threat. Through no fault of my own, I was in a proxy battle with George W. Bush who feared life in prison.

Suing four federal judges for corruption was a gutsy move, and angered many in power, especially the crooked federal judges. Knowing I was going to take my case all the way to the United States Supreme Court once again, made the matter even more urgent to stop me.

At the time, I was living deep in the woods of the mountains of western North Carolina, outside the tourist town of Brevard, North Carolina. At night it was so pitch dark, that you could not even see your hands before you. The night after I filed my federal lawsuit against the four corrupt federal judges, two men suddenly appeared out of the dark on my front porch knocking on my door. They did not come by car, as no lights gave away their approach. I did not answer the door, and because my dog Merry was furiously barking at them, they eventually left.

My third federal lawsuit was dismissed at the speed of lightning, as I was racing toward the United States Supreme Court. The United States Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals, in Richmond, Virginia, just as before, rejected my appeal. Bribes likely paid quickly. I then petitioned the United States Supreme Court, but this time I was armed with the evidence of all the murdered inmates killed with hypothermic cold cell torture. My one Constitutional question was "Is being brutally tortured to death with hypothermic cold cell torture a violation of the Constitution?" I inferred that the supreme court justices had blood on their hands, dripping on my words, due to all the inmates tortured to death with hypothermic cold cell torture since my first petition was denied back in 2011.

February 13, 2016 - Justice Antonin Gregory Scalia's Untimely Death

Nineteen days after filing my second petition with the United States Supreme Court, on February 13, 2016, Justice Antonin Gregory Scalia died in his sleep, after retiring early from a dinner, claiming he was not feeling well. While at a private hunting ranch deep in west Texas, with a group of about thirty other hunters, whose identities were never revealed in the news.

I suspected something fishy. The timing and secrecy was hiding something. I had a hunch President Bush2 and Vice President Cheney were somehow behind the hunting trip, to influence Justice Scalia's key tie vote on my upcoming petition vote. The supreme court was divided on torture, and Justice Scalia's vote would swing in support of denying my petition.

Taking to the Internet to read news reports, I found an article of an interview with the owner of the Texas hunting ranch. The owner disclosed the large hunting party was from a secretive International hunting fraternity. I visited the website of the hunting fraternity, that started in Europe some four hundred years prior. The existence of the hunting fraternity was no secret, but the membership list was very private.

Next, I read in the news, Justice Scalia left his federal security detail behind in Houston, to fly to the ranch by private airplane. Knowing his security detail would never agree to do such a thing, being paid to never leave him alone, left me to deductive reasoning. I deduced the only way his federal security detail would agree to leave him, was if too many other federal security agents were already on the airplane, and on the ground at the ranch, and then on the return flight. I further deduced the only way too many federal agents could be gathered, was from the federal security details of past elected federal executives, most likely President Bush2, along with Vice President Cheney.

I deduced the whole hunting trip, fooling thirty other secret hunting fraternity members into believing Justice Scalia's invitation was to initiate him as a new member, was a carefully disguised and hurriedly planned trip just to avoid certain criminals from being prosecuted for torture. Leaving the only stop gap measure of convincing Justice Scalia to deny my petition, for the second time, to protect his new hunting friends.

Once God removed Justice Scalia from the supreme court, the remaining eight justices were able to bring an end to the TortureGate Corruption Murder Scandal.

In what started out as my quest for justice in my own torture case, I found myself as the greatest enemy of George W. Bush, Dick Cheney, the CIA goons, and FBI killers. In what would later become known as the largest group of corrupt governmental officials called the "Deep State," I was to become the catalyst and sacrificial victim to eventually defeat all of them.

George W. Bush and I descended from the same two Pilgrims on the Mayflower back in 1620. I have family members who vacationed with the Bush family, taking remote hunting trips with them. I was later to learn my own family acted as a Judas to betray me. To assure I never embarrassed the good name of our family, and to protect their powerful friends. I was scarified to perpetuate the species.

The Killer In The Red Truck

After the Justice Scalia debacle failed, options for the desperate ran low. Causing them to try the direct approach, to intimidate me into withdrawing my petition, to save my own life, by putting it in danger. But after my near death experience during my torture and gunshot, learning death was a reward, I lost all fear of death.

On Sunday, March 13, 2016, five days before the supreme court was to vote on my petition, while in my cottage in the woods, I observed a beat up old red pickup truck from South Carolina make its way down the gravel road. Only to drive around the circle before my cottage, and then slowly drive out to the main road. Then to return twenty minutes later doing the same drive through. After several rounds, the truck had my attention.

Perhaps the truck was sent to intimidate me, or do worse. I stepped out onto the front porch, and sat down in one of the rocking chairs, and waited for the truck to return. My security camera took pictures every fifteen seconds. The red truck came back down the road, and upon observing me on the porch, drove half-way around the circle, stopped, and turned off the engine. The driver lit a cigarette, and stared straight up at me on the porch. I was obviously not afraid of him. The driver hung his hand out the window a bit, brandishing a handgun for me to see.

Knowing he was unlikely to hit me from that distance with a handgun, I remained seated, with my eyes locked on the demon in the truck. If he had gotten out, and walked up to the cottage, he would have had a clear shot at me. I prepared myself to stay firmly seated in the chair, and let him kill me. Where I would win regardless of what happened. He could only kill my body, but not my spirit.

A friend of mine living up the hill observed what was going on, grabbed his assault rifle, and came down the hill under the cover of trees. He yelled over to the driver in the truck, startling the driver to look around not seeing anyone, until he focused down the barrel of an semi-automatic rifle. The coward dropped his cigarette out the window, started his engine, and drove away at a fast clip. Never to be seen again, nor knowing who sent him. But he reported back to his handlers, that Bardes was not afraid of death.

Two Trucks This Time

On the day the supreme court was to vote on my petition, the justices decided to postpone the vote until April 15, 2016. At 9:02pm, on April 9, 2016, headlights appeared coming down the road towards me, but this time there were two sets of headlights. I was reclining on my bed, watching the video feed from the security camera out on the porch.

The trucks drove down, and half-way around the circle, then stopped. A man stepped out of the first truck, walked out into the beams of his headlights, then waved his hands to get my attention. The trucks turned off their lights, making them disappear in the dark, only to turn them back on. Then they flashed their lights on and off again, while honking their horns.

I decided to not step out on the front porch that time, as the darkness may have disguised a rifle with a scope. After twelve minutes of no reaction from me, they left, never to be seen again, nor knowing who sent them. Only to return to their handlers, having to report failure a second time, received as bad news to those who ordered their last chance.

April 15, 2016 - The US Supreme Court Vote To End The TortureGate Scandal

On the day of the vote on my petition, SCOTUSblog, the website that tracks the daily activities of the supreme court, reported the justices canceled their regularly scheduled conference (case voting) meeting, to work on one important case. Letting me know just which one. The justices closed themselves behind doors, asking not to be disturbed for the entire day. The slate of cases to be voted upon were rescheduled to a future date, all except mine. Only my petition was denied that day.

But what took place behind those closed doors was not known until afterwards. Although my petition was voted upon that day, and denied once again, the justices decided to no longer dismiss any more torture lawsuits. After the attacks on 9/11, George W. Bush directed Chief Justice John Roberts to have every federal judge dismiss every torture lawsuit, even those of domestic torture, just to protect themselves from going to prison. But that fateful day, Chief Justice Roberts turned on George W. Bush, and ordered every federal judge in the country to no longer dismiss any more torture lawsuits.

Hours later, a federal judge in Seattle, Washington, ruled against the two CIA torture doctors of death, whom had been sued by three CIA torture victims, by refusing to dismiss their cold cell torture lawsuit against them. One of the victims had been brutally tortured to death by hypothermic cold cell torture, represented by family members. In what shocked not just the legal community, but the entire nation, the almost two decade long practice of dismissing torture lawsuits, came to an abrupt end. TortureGate had ended.

The two CIA torture doctors of death tried repeatedly afterwards to have their case dismissed, but the federal judge refused again and again, and scheduled the case for trial. The day before the trial was to begin, the two CIA torture doctors of death settled the case financially, for a sum of money not disclosed, nor an admission of guilt. Torture cases have not been dismissed ever since. One federal judge even published a graphic photo of forty Mexican men being tortured in a large cold cell on our southern border. But the judge did not publish the photo of women and children being similarly tortured in the cold, citing such was too graphic and too disturbing.

Images show miserable conditions at Border Patrol holding cells in Arizona

I freed the federal judiciary from the grips of George W. Bush and CIA goon corruption, and the United States Department of Justice was able to once again become the vicars of prisoner safeties. So, I lost the biggest case of my life, but God won a great victory.

God foretold my many lawsuits through the Prophets. Speaking of George W. Bush and the federal judges who swore an oath to uphold the US Constitution, only to make corrupt agreements and accept bribes.

Hosea 10:4
4 [God speaking] They make many promises, take false oaths, and make agreements; therefore lawsuits spring up like poisonous weeds in a plowed field.

Micah 7:3
3 [God speaking] Both hands are skilled in doing evil; their ruler demands gifts, the judge accepts bribes, the powerful dictate what they desire - they all conspire together.

This let me know I was doing the right thing, despite losing every lawsuit, God won. Prophetic scripture that once confused me, had suddenly come to life in very real and stark events. God's final battle to defeat Satan had come to a head, and I somehow played a role. This caused me to read and reread every word of scripture in an anticipatory manner.

CIA Agent "Karen Thomas" Moves In Next Door

Shortly after the supreme court victory, George did not give up his efforts keeping an eye on me. George recruited a CIA field office employee, not an agent, to go undercover, and move into the cabin next to mine in Brevard, North Carolina.

I suspected she was an undercover operative the moment I watched her drive up and unpack her
SUV. She had no luggage or furniture, just a few bags of items, along with a large black dog. At night when I observed her looking out her window, up at my cabin, I concluded George had sent her to spy on me.

She was very nice, and used the name "Karen Thomas." She was my age, recently divorced, from Jacksonville, Florida, was a meteorologist once in the Navy, and had a black dog, just like my black dog. George sent her to be my new girlfriend. George did not know I had taken a vow of celibacy back in 2002, and had no intentions on becoming sexually active once again. Once "Karen" learned of this, she stopped her efforts to seduce me, and rather settled on being friends.

I had no way of proving Karen was undercover CIA, or not, so I tried an experiment. This was during the time of the torture lawsuit against the two CIA torture doctors of death, which was quickly heading for trial as a result of my case at the supreme court. I typed up an anonymous note to Karen and placed it in her mailbox. The note said that I knew who she was working for, and was willing to help the CIA torture doctors in their lawsuit.

I placed the note in Karen's mailbox at noon one day, she found it by 2:00pm, and that afternoon, Attorney General Loretta Lynch placed a "clerk's mailroom" letter in the mail, which I received the next day. This generic form letter simply stated the attorney general had received my letter, and would contact me at a later date. It was her way of trying to fish out just what kind of help I was offering to the two CIA torture doctors. But it confirmed Karen was an undercover CIA operative.

I never replied to Loretta Lynch, and shortly afterwards, Karen Thomas broke her year long lease, packed her SUV, and left, never to be seen again.

The Wrath Of The Beast Of Revelation - George W. Bush

George W. Bush was furious with me, as you can imagine. After my torture and gunshot, I was on Social Security disability from PTSD. George reacted by having my Social Security benefits canceled. Months later I wrote a letter to George's book publisher shopping a book about his corruption in the TortureGate Murder Scandal. The publisher gave my letter to George, who then ordered Social Security to immediately restart my Social Security disability benefits. The next day I received a letter from Social Security that did not say I was "considered disabled again," rather it just read "We can start paying you..." Enclosed was a lump sum check for the past months of not receiving benefits.

I wrote the book anyway. When I finished the final draft, on 2/22/2017, the book contained exactly 66,000 words, and 1,260 paragraphs. Both prophetic numbers. This let me know God was pleased with my book. I published the book as both a paperback and eBook. I titled my book "Unspeakable Pain."

George was not happy with my book. George was not happy I was alive. George then cut off my Social Security disability benefits permanently, and took the approach of offering me a bribe to pull my book from publication and remain silent. I refused.

ColdCellTorture.com

I had a running blog website about cold cell torture, where I chronicled all of my research, and tracked all the inmate deaths from hypothermic cold cell torture, as well as the progress of my lawsuits. When someone visited the website, I would get their general location and identification information from the website log files.

When the general public visited the website, they usually became so fearful that they left and never returned, being such a scary truth. But the government types visited almost every day, keeping close tabs on my newest entries to the blog. George W. Bush, Dick Cheney, the CIA goons, the FBI killers, the Department of Justice criminals, as well as visitors from around the world kept visiting the website every day.

77 Pre-Exile Website Traffic Log Snippets

Below are seventy-seven (77) snippets of website visits by various bad actors. These visits cover the period from the end of my lawsuit at the Supreme Court (2016) to 5/29/2019, the start of my exile.

These 77 snippets come from over 2,400 pages of annotated website log files. Too many to chronicle, therefore, I have lifted 77 of the most significant.

This period covers these main events:
1) George kept recruiting shills to pay me off with money, they all said no.
2) Seven month long FBI investigation of me, finding nothing useful.
3) George goes back to recruiting shills.
4) George orders Google to remove my website from their search engine's first result position.
4) I wrote an email to CEO Larry Page to not listen to criminals, Larry immediately restored my website at the first return result position.
5) A dozen CEO's all of a sudden become involved, all became loyal to George, and in opposition to me.
6) A group of high school educators connected to Lightspeed Systems wrote a long white paper on George's use of cold cell torture/murder. George was caught by surprise and bribed or threatened them to not publish their paper on cold cell torture.
6) President of Interpol was arrested in China for accepting bribes from George to pay off the ICC (International Criminal Court) judges to thwart investigation into cold cell torture/murder in Afghanistan.
7) George made Bill Gates an equal partner in power to lead the negotiations with China to avoid embarrassing revelations of corruption.
8) Bill Gates conducted dozens of meetings to negotiate with China to not bust George for bribes to the ICC judges. China takes advantage of the weak position and agrees to keep secrets. Ending our sovereignty as a nation.
9) The ICC judges voted to not open the Bush2 war crimes investigation. But a year later they reversed and opened the investigation. So, Bill's negotiations worked for a time.
10) Efforts to recruit shills to pay me off with money resumed.
11) The decision was made to just kill me instead, after obtaining permission from my father.

The below 77 log snippets contain notes made at the time. I add some current prose as a set up to some of them, others are self explanatory.
The website traffic log entries contain several items separated by the pipe "|" character. In order they are: name of webpage visited | IP address of visitor | date and time | website visitor came from prior to visit | string of characters about their computer.

While the actual identity of the visitor is unknown, the forensic identifiers, the date and time of visit, who they visited with at the same time, the repetition of visits, and clearly identifiable corporate IP blocks result in default identities to a statistical significance of near certainty. Some visitors came from proxy (hiding) addresses, such as George who always used the same proxies making identification efficient. Otherwise, all the identities are in my opinion.

The Lead Up

For almost two years, George Bush2 kept recruiting members of his crime group to act as a "shill" to pay me off with money after communicating threats. They all said no except for one person. But over this period George recruited hundreds of shills. About five (5) shills a day, mostly at night. One day George recruited ten (10) shills setting the record.

After George became frustrated at his failure at recruiting, he ordered a nationwide FBI investigation to dig up dirt on me to charge and prosecute me into submission. The seven month long investigation yielded nothing useful. George went back to recruiting shills.

The below 77 snippets start during the FBI investigation.

Above, a FBI agent in the Germany CIA center visiting my book's website which chronicles the FBI cold cell torture crimes. She/he then calls President Obama on vacation in Hawaii who then visits the "FBI" page at cold cell from Google. Barack then called the FBI back in Washington, DC, who then visited during a phone call. These people are extraordinary criminals, true enemies of of the state.

Salt Lake City, Utah. Location of NSA super data center. Someone, likely the FBI agent below, was running a deep search on ‘unspeakable pain’ and visited the website. At 4pm ET.

So much for FISA court permission, or laws for that matter. Dozens of visits from the super data center, constantly searching.

FROM:
kimberley hughes <kimberleyhughes@icloud.com>

I am shocked to read your article about cold cell torture.
I too was stripped naked and locked in a room with no bedding and a steel buck to lay on.
When they found out I was running the hot water to warm the concrete where the drain pipe run under it and keeping warmer they shut the water off.
You confirmed it was to torture me.
I filed a lawsuit but my ex lawyer now a federal judge dismissed it for no merit.
Sent from my iPad

I replied:
Kimberley,
I am just happy you survived. So many have not. Find a new lawyer and file a new lawsuit. Fewer torture lawsuits are dismissed today than in the past. If you do not have justice in this life, you will in the next. Hypothermia kills, you were tortured with attempted murder. That is why I am glad you survived.
Be well, David

(update note 1/20/18: This above person was actually an FBI plant, to try to entice me to practice law without a license. The FBI was desperate to prosecute me for anything. Thankfully my advice to her was to hire a lawyer, the FBI was hoping otherwise.)

New York City. FBI agent getting my email address. At 12:04pm ET. Gov-issued secure iPhone OS version 10_3_3.

All of a sudden, at 12:28pm, a half hour after the above FBI agent grabbed my email address from my website, I received an email from Rachel Rose in NYC begging me to write a motion for her family court hearing this Wednesday, regarding her efforts to obtain child support from her baby daddy. She offered to PayPal me $1,000 today, and $1,000 later, if I write the motion for her. She was urgent in her need.

New York City. At 12:45pm ET, the below FBI agent in New York City visited again (or different agent). They have the Gov-issued secure iPhone OS 10_3_3.

An hour later, at 1:34pm ET, Rachel sent a second email, begging for me to reply. Attached were legal documents for me to review, and the email contained more legal facts. The FBI is desperate and have nothing useful, so they have to entice with bait on a hook. It is 2:00pm ET at the moment, while in NYC Rachel and the FBI agent are sitting, waiting, and hoping I reply. I will never reply. I wonder how long they will wait?

Prime Minister Shinzo Abe will meet with former U.S. President Barack Obama on Sunday over lunch in Tokyo, the Japanese government said Thursday. [Set Up For Below: below, George was frustrated and ordered Google to remove my website from the first search result position. Larry did so. I then emailed Larry with plead to not give into criminals. Larry immediately restored my website to the first search result position. But thereafter a dozen CEO's visited, as word spread fast. George twisted each one, became loyal to George and his crime club. They all turned on me as their main problem.]
- --------------------------------------

Above, Warren visited the 'suicide' page meaning he just spoke with George. The way George tells new people about cold cell torture is from the angle of suicide watch, so when the new person searches Google for such terms, it always lands on the suicide watch page of coldcelltorture.com. This is Warren's first visit, is he a dirty criminal too?

7/2018

[Set Up For Below: below, a visitor to 'coldcelltorture.com' posted the website on their Facebook page feed, and it took off on a mini-viral run. Until stopped by Mark Z. alerting George and his FBI soldiers to put an end to the run.]

Marquette, Michigan, this is the original poster on Facebook. They started the run on Facebook.

Facebook corporate HQ themselves checking 5 minutes later. Mark Z. Who then alerts a FBI agent and Sarah Palin. See below.
Monroe, Louisiana. This is the location of the stash of gold and silver loot that funds George's crime club. Original location of the Confederate gold that was shipped by trains to this general area. Never seen again. But each time George wants to pay me off with money, I get visits from their piggy bank. This person visited a few days ago.

Trump says he met with New York Times publisher at White House

CBS/AP July 29, 2018, 10:03 AM

Tweet at 8:30am ET:

Had a very good and interesting meeting at the White House with A.G. Sulzberger, Publisher of the New York Times. Spent much time talking about the vast amounts of Fake News being put out by the media & how that Fake News has morphed into phrase, “Enemy of the People.” Sad!
— Donald J. Trump (@realDonaldTrump) July 29, 2018

The article stated: "After Sulzberger took over from his father on Jan. 1, Mr. Trump tweeted that his ascension gives the paper a 'last chance' to fulfill its founder's vision of impartiality." These words may prove a self fulfilling prophecy here? As Sulzberger has the chance to be a hero, and save our nation. Instead he betrayed our nation in a series of serious crimes.

The Trump Tweet was at 8:30am ET, so their meeting likely occurred yesterday, [at Golf course] Did Trump convince the NYT's to sink the cold cell story?

She wrote an article on the Lee Prison riot in South Carolina, debunking the state’s version of events. She won a Pulitzer prize on a book she wrote about the Attica riot of 1971, titled “Blood in the water.” She last visited the cold cell website yesterday, but she has visited for a long time. She was writing an article on cold cell torture until George bribed her not to. At 11:35am ET

[Set Up For Below: After I published my book in 2017 on the TortureGate Corruption Scandal, it somehow made it to the Nobel Committee. For four (4) years in a row, the Literature Committee tried to award me the prize. But each time, George succeeded in paying them off with bribes and/or threats. Below was the second year that George was tipped off that I was going to be awarded the prize. Word spread the night before.]

2-Way Conversation Below
Amarillo, Texas, this could be Mrs. "P" Pickens, whom my father almost married when I was young. Sister Cindy may have tipped her off here that I am being awarded a Nobel Prize in Literature. At 8:49pm ET.

Above, based on traffic, the 2018 Nobel Committee awarded me a Nobel Prize in Literature as a way to bust George and his killers, splashing cold cell torture all over the world. The previous year, 2017, bribes prevented the award, but now it looks like the award will stick? My sister Cindy was alerted by Laura, who told Mrs. Pickens above, and her son Tom Pickens. [Update Note: Bribes won again. And again in 2019, until the Nobel Literature Committee disbanded due to corruption. But reformed after a year off, only to be bribed again in 2020.]

The day Meng Hongwei, President of Interpol, was arrested in China for bribes. On 10/4/2018, Meng's wife reported him missing to the police. George was bribing the judges of the International Criminal Court to stop the investigation into cold cell torture war crimes in Afghanistan.

Trump just spoke with George because Donald visited the 'suicide' page, indicating the way George describes cold cell torture to someone new. This ICC judge was hard to twist, must have paid him off with a lot of money. Based on his frequent visits hereafter, he is really paranoid about being busted. China, speaking with Bush2 above about my book and story, at 3:28pm ET China, to dab site at 3:43pm ET

At 4:04pm ET, it appears based on the above, that China has been speaking and listening to Bush2's side of the ICC judge bribe story, and to my book unspeakablepain.com, and me, obviously. If I could only be a fly on the wall.

I assume China will use this as some sort of negotiating tool, leveraging wide public disclosure verses what they want from the U.S. to remain hidden? Or, is this something that China will use to bolster themselves in the world's opinion, while putting mud in the eyes of the U.S.? If they go with corruption cover up they become stuck with it too. No way out afterwards. Whole ship sinks together.

But it appears Bush2 bowed down on both knees in humiliation to the Chinese government, admitting crimes of making bribes; and why.

Chicago, Microsoft Corporate, Bill Gate's searching Bing for "cold cell torture hulk." A hulk is a prison ship, cold with no heat. At 10:43pm, 12:21am, 1:46am, 3:04am ET Someone, maybe China, told Bill Gates that cold cell torture was used on prison ships. That many died from hypothermia. So, Bill searches his own search engine for more information.

Below, China next interviewed Dick Cheney about torture bribes and it's cover up. This is the first visit between Dick and China.

China, to dab site, same time speaking with Dick Cheney, below, at 11:10pm ET

Dick Cheney, to dab site, same time as China above. Cheney is being questioned, and the topic is me. I am not sure the Chinese will believe him. At 11:12pm ET
So now we have Dick Cheney on both knees bowing down to the Chinese inquisitors. Talk about a full surrender. Both hands up.

Whenever I sent a Tweet, immediate bot hits came from all those granted access to spy on and track a victim. Twitter must offer this service. I have no idea who is in Italy. CIA and someone at Twitter HQ, then Rupert. The FBI used to track for awhile, but gave up. Common denominator is they are all criminals.

Wife of Meng Hongwei, missing ex-Interpol chief, slams ‘political nature’ of his detention in China and rejects corruption claims

The Communist Party’s Central Commission for Discipline Inspection (CCDI) said Meng was suspected of taking bribes and causing serious harm to the party’s image and state interests, adding he should be severely dealt with.

China making the above move was triggered by something.

Above, George and porn addicted Jose recruiting a killer in Chicago. Three more killers were recruited this evening, as I fled Brevard, NC on my exile just after midnight.

Debrief

The common denominator of all the visits and meetings were me as the focal point and them as the criminals. Both the width and depth of the corruption is complete.
I had accumulated visits from a vast array of who's who of criminal world leaders and billionaires. Bribes, extortion, coercion, threats, organized crime, racketeering, corruption, conspiracy, assassination, and murder.

Below is a crime map under their biblical roles from ancient prophecy which I explain later in detail:

Crime Map of "Satan's Axis of Evil"

Crime Syndicate Leaders:
1) "El Jefe" (George W. Bush)
2) "The Dork" (Bill Gates)

Daniel's Four Beasts:
1) Bill Clinton
2) George W. Bush
3) Barrack Obama
4) Donald Trump

Ezra's 'Most Evil Little Wing':

Overstock CEO Patrick M. Byrne Resigns Over Deep State Corruption

Much later, on August 22, 2019, Overstock CEO Patrick M. Byrne resigned, claiming involvement with Deep State corruption. Byrne then went on all the TV news shows explaining how the FBI leaders of the Deep State offered him a billion dollar bribe to remain silent, and not disclose their corruption. Otherwise they might kill him. Byrne explained he consulted with close friend Warren Buffett as to a course of action. Buffett told Byrne to go public with the news, as the American people needed to know. Byrne reported the Deep State was falling apart, and would soon be revealed as the largest corruption scandal in the history of our nation.

On December 3, 2019, Google co-founders Larry Page and Sergey Brin suddenly resigned from their positions as CEO and President of Google parent Alphabet. Citing no real valid reason other than time to resign. Which let me know why. Then Bill Gates resigned from all of his senior board positions. Royal robes were taken off in preparation of possible doom fallout.

During my exile I lost ownership of the domain name "ColdCellTorture.com," which George W. Bush gleefully took over putting up a bogus website in French selling Nike sneakers. Much to the relief of those most corrupt.
